

Remember

Remember when
he called your name.
Remember where you started from.
Remember all you overcame.
Remember how through him
you won.

You wanted to know all it was
To see him, to be him.
You realized that you were lost
without him, you found him.
You saw the way you never could repay him, today is the day to take time just to...

Chorus :

Remember, remember, Remember
what you're doing
this for.
Remember, remember.
Remember why he is your Lord.

Remember who you were before.
Remember where your sorrows led.
Remember sin had promised more,
Remember hopelessness instead.

Instead of pleasure filling you,
it killed you, and still you were left with only emptiness inside you, to hide you would fill your time with other things,
yet still knew there had to more.
And then you found him...

Chorus :

Remember, remember, Remember
what you're doing
this for.
Remember, remember.
Remember why he is your Lord.

Remember seeing what to do,
Remember eyes were open wide.

Remember every day was new.
Remember learning like a child.

A child, you hungered for each lesson
you learned and in turn you passed along each morsel to another, your brother.
You tasted that the Lord was good
–he filled you, now don't you forget your first love, got to...

Chorus :

Remember, remember, Remember
what you're doing
this for.

Remember, remember.
Remember why he is your Lord.

Remember what the future holds.
Remember dreams you had in youth.
Remember all the Spirit told.
Remember promises of fruit.

Fruit that's guaranteed if you stay
with him, and in him.
Tomorrow holds the dreams
that God inspires; still higher his power leads,
from strength to strength
and victory to victory again.
And heaven's waiting...

Chorus :

Remember, remember, Remember
what you're doing
this for.

Remember, remember.
Remember why he is your Lord.
