

The remembrance

This bread it is my body a sacrifice for you All your sins I carry believe, for it is true

Choir:

Eat it, drink it to remember that I love you thoroughly
A love for every single member
of my holy family

This cup contains my own blood a covenant brand new An offering pleasing my God is poured out for you

Choir:

Eat it, drink it to remember
that I love you thoroughly
A love for every single member

This meal is what I longed for to take with you, my dear But I will have it no more until I'll see you there

Choir:

that I love you thoroughly
